

Christopher Joe Tugbah

I was a member of the organizing committee that brought Abe Simmons, Betty Neal, Kwame Ross, and others on board to stir the affairs of the Association after decades of being dormant. This is to speak about my passion for serving my institution, most especially at such time when we are going global and facing several challenges domestically and internationally.

I hold a Bachelor of Science in Economics and pursuing my Masters in International Relations at the African Methodist Episcopal University in Liberia.

I am currently the Secretary of the Deanna Kay Isaacson School of Midwifery/Ministry of Health, Republic of Liberia, a position that I have been occupying since 2011.

I have vast experience in this role/position and very enthusiastic about exercising same at the level of the association.

I hope my nomination will not only serve as a written piece of document but as a means of expressing how anxious and ambitious I am to serve my alma mater through our noble association, the CWAAA-GLOBAL.
