

Rev. Sara Johnette Fitzjohn, CWA Class of 1985, is an ordained minister, social service professional, and humanitarian. She is an ordained Elder in the United Methodist Church and has since served in ministries and ecumenical faith movements around the world. Her affiliations include Liberia Baptist Theological Seminary, Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington DC, the United Methodist Women, the World Student Christian Federation, and the All-Africa Council of Churches. Rev. Fitzjohn describes her call to ministry as a call to serve people across a diversity of experiences, theology, and personal background through God's love. She continuously prays John Wesley's words, "God grant that I may never live to be useless." Her most recent heeding of this call led to the launching of a prayer line ministry, the "Dominion Hour", in May 2020 to help people cope with the uncertainties surrounding Covid 19 and the state of the world. Rev. Fitzjohn has a deep knowledge of the Bible, a heart for people, and impressive leadership ability. In addition to her ministerial roles, she has served in director and supervisory roles for various non-profit organizations. She is honored to be nominated for the position of Chaplain to the College of West Africa Global Alumni Association.
